

Images from Holland

Written by Administrator

Monday, 16 April 2012 12:26 - Last Updated Wednesday, 19 March 2014 10:53

---

 ♦  ♦  ♦    ♦  Maastricht♦ is a town and a municipality in the Southeast of the European country the Netherlands. It is the capital city in the province of Limburg.  Maastricht is located on both sides of the Maas river, at the point where the Jeker River joins it.  In history Maastricht developed from a Belgic settlement, that in the Gallic Wars was conquered by the Romans and thus became a Roman settlement, to a religious centre, a garrison city and an early industrial city. Nowadays, it is known as a city of especially culture (including local folklore) and education. Maastricht's rich history shows from the fact that in this town no less than 1677 national heritage sites (Rijksmonumenten) are located, which is the second highest amount in a Dutch town, after Amsterdam. Furthermore, it has become known, by way of the Maastricht Treaty, as the birthplace of the European Union, European citizenship, and the single European currency, the euro. The town is popular with tourists for shopping and recreation, and has a large growing international student population. Maastricht is a member of the Most Ancient European Towns Network and is part of the Meuse-Rhine Euroregion, which includes nearby cities Aachen, Eupen, Hasselt, Li♦e and Tongeren.  In the link , you can watch a video about what Maastricht has to offer as a city:  ♦